

Trico Electric Cooperative Applies for Arizona’s Broadband Equity, Access & Development (BEAD) Grant Program

Trico Electric Cooperative (Trico) has applied for a grant from Arizona’s Broadband Equity, Access & Deployment (BEAD) Program, which represents the state’s largest broadband investment in history. The BEAD program is managed by the Arizona and not-for-profit cooperative model make it an ideal candidate to provide fast, reliable, and affordable internet solutions with a focus on excellent service. Trico is already working on a plan to expand fiber facilities in its electric service territory to support better communication and control between Trico substations and line devices, and to implement smart-grid solutions that will provide improved reliability, allow for better integration of distributed energy resources, and support energy solutions offered to Trico Members.

Commerce Authority with the goal of providing universal broadband internet access for all in Arizona.

Over the past 18 months, Trico’s Board of Directors and Staff have completed a detailed feasibility study to understand the financial, operational, and technical requirements for offering broadband. The Board has approved proceeding with a BEAD application and planning for providing broadband. The final decision on whether to proceed with offering broadband services will be made after BEAD awards are announced, which is expected to occur in early Summer 2025.

Trico is taking practical steps to be prepared if it does earn a BEAD award. One of these steps is identifying public and Member interest in receiving broadband internet service from Trico. Members can visit www.trico.coop or login to their Trico SmartHub accounts to register their interest. This will help Trico to better understand which communities are the most interested in broadband service, collect a list of interested Members who want to stay informed, and plan Trico’s fiber build out.

The BEAD Program prioritizes extending broadband internet service to the unserved and underserved areas of Arizona, including many rural areas. The goal is to improve connectivity, support economic growth, enhance education, and improve healthcare access throughout the state. As an electric cooperative that has been serving underserved and rural communities of Southern Arizona since 1945, Trico is uniquely qualified to provide this service.

“Almost 80 years ago, Trico was established to provide essential electric services. As we have grown, developed, and innovated over the years, we have never lost sight of that important duty. Today, high-speed, reliable, and affordable broadband service is a vital utility that promotes economic progress, education, and healthcare” said CEO and General Manager, Brian Heithoff.

On March 7th, Trico submitted an application for BEAD grant funds to support the design and construction of fiber infrastructure that would allow Trico to provide broadband internet service to the residents of Southern Arizona. Trico’s extensive utility experience

“As a co-op our experience, our high-level Member service, and our decades long commitment to the communities we serve, make us uniquely qualified to design, deploy, and manage a broadband network to serve rural areas, growing towns and suburban areas, vital community anchors like schools and hospitals, and traditionally underserved areas throughout Southern Arizona,” Heithoff said.

What will Trico getting the BEAD grant mean to the residents of Three Points

by Trish Hastings-Sargent

Trico is working to build a reliable, resilient Smart Grid using high speed fiber. This Smart Grid will ensure safety, cybersecurity, and reliable performance.

By building Smart Grid thru-out their service area, they will be able to monitor their system and reach outages faster, including potentially redirecting electric power to outage areas while repair work is being done.

If Trico receives a BEAD award then the Board will decide whether to extend the fiber Smart Grid to also provide broadband to Trico Members. This is a hard wired closed system, meaning a cable from Trico’s closest facility to your home.

The speed of the broadband service that Trico could provide (among other options) will be 1 Gigabit up and 1 Gigabit down. The final cost is being determined but is expected to be cost competitive.

Trico will hear if they received the grant this summer. If they do proceed with broadband the build would likely start in January 2026. To build the entire system could take around three years.

Attention Three Points Residents

If you are interested in receiving broadband internet service from Trico go to www.trico.coop or login to your Trico SmartHub account to register your interest.

Trico is logging each interested vote on a map. If they receive the grant and start planning their fiber build this map will identify the areas of greatest interest and will be built earlier than lower interest areas.

Our Community needs reliable high speed internet for a fair price.

Let’s all register our interest with Trico for high speed to our community. Three Points should be at the top of Trico’s list not the bottom.

Welcome to The Hub!

We are the Friends of Robles Ranch, a group of community members who believe in serving, providing resources, and creating positive experiences for our neighbors.

We manage a clothing store and food bank that provides affordable clothing, household items, and essential food boxes to our outstanding community members. The place/space we gather and serve is called The Hub.

We are also working to establish the Hub as a place where we will hold community events and offer various training/programs and volunteer opportunities.

Over the last few weeks, we have been working with the Pima County Health Department to find ways to better serve our community. They have a great team dedicated to serving the people of our community.

The Pima County Health Department will attend our "Grub at The Hub" on Wednesday, April 2nd, at 4 p.m. Their team will hang out, introduce themselves, and share information about the services and resources.

Pima County Health Department aims to strengthen and expand its relationship with rural partners. They also want to better understand how The Hub supports and works in the community and what gaps might exist for the health and well-being of Three Points residents.

The Friends of Robles Ranch at The Hub are excited about partnering with the health department.

We are grateful for community members who shop at our store, donate to our store, receive food boxes, and volunteer. Without you, The Hub would not exist.

Coming Next Month in the Fence Post - Local Artists Page

By Trish Hastings-Sargent

Dear Reader

The Fence Post is our local newsletter. As such we would like to encourage our local creative talents.

We know there are a lot of talented folks out here and we would like to begin sharing what they create with our readers.

- Do you create original art? This is a broad category. It includes original art in all mediums, like fiber, wood, metal, painting, photography, tattooing, garments, sculpture (hard & soft) and probably others I have not thought of.

- Are you a creative writer? Do you write original poems or short stories?

- Are you musical? Do you write original songs and preform them? Have you preformed them and posted them online?

What The Fence Post Will Not Accept

The Fence Post is dedicated to providing only positive points of view. We will not accept anything negative or derogatory. We prefer nothing political as it is so controversial. We reserve the right not to publish anything we feel could be controversial.

What The Fence Post Will Accept

- We will only accept original work (not made from a commercial pattern) from folks who live in our Three Points/Robles Junction Community.
- We encourage folks of all ages (especially students) to submit their original work.
- If you are an artist, we will accept one photo of one piece of your original work per issue. We will include the title of the piece, your name and any information you want to include.
- If you are a creative writer, we will accept and print a poem or short story under 400 words. If your creative writing is longer than that and you have a link to where it can be found on line we will include the link, with your name and contact information and any information you want to include..

- If you are a musical talent and have preformed your original piece on a social media platform we will include the link with your name and any information you want to include.

If you would like to share your creativity please contact Trish at fencepost3points@gmail.com for more details.

Hello Three Points/ Robles Friends,

Allow me to introduce myself, I am Gabie Davenport, LMSW, BHP, CCTP-Trauma Specialist, Equine Assisted Growth and Learning Association (EAGALA), Certified Mental Health Professional. I have been within the behavioral health field for 16.5 years. My experiences include substance use disorders with recovery treatments, mental and behavioral health diagnoses, trauma disorders, crisis interventions and prevention of SI/HI. A 2018 graduate of Arizona State University-School of Social Work Master's Program.

My calling in life has always been prevalent in all aspects of who "I AM", a Helper. My guiding philosophy is: "First one must see the need, then move into filling the need." This provides a heightened awareness of opportunities in helping people grow into the best version of themselves, creating healthier lives starts with oneself, this will continue in the creating a healthier family, community, and so forth. My guiding goal is a simple approach; helping one learn how to achieve their own successes. It starts by addressing the needs for wellness and wellbeing of the whole person: Body, Mind, and Spirit. The holistic, service model approach in helping others in helping themselves by increasing one's own abilities to cope with daily living, to promote healing. In the words of Hippocrates (the father of medicine), "Let food be thy medicine, and medicine be thy food". Living within rural communities affords one the ability to grow and harvest Fresh herbs, vegetables, eggs, and meats. Avoiding, or limiting the intake of processed (fast) foods available on "Every Street Corner, USA". Aiding others in understanding of the value of healthy nutrition in daily living is having a healthy body, a healthy mind, and healthy spirit, thus supporting a healthier life, which is all-encompassing of Body, Mind, and Spirit.

I have recently joined the team here at United Community Health Center (UCHC) in Three Points; as a therapist in our Behavioral Health Services, providing therapeutic sessions based on mental health needs, as well connecting with the resources needed in "making daily living simpler", within our rural community. Being a Licensed Master Social Worker (LMSW), I am an "Agent for Change". Change which allows a difference in the lives of an individual, their families, within their neighborhoods, and in communities. These changes may even occur at the county, state, and national levels of government, which effects "all the people". Yet, the place to start change, is with YOU.

Here at United Community Health Center (UCHC) our Mission Statement reads "We deliver quality care that is accessible, comprehensive, innovative, compassionate and culturally sensitive in an atmosphere of trust and respect" means the delivery of our services to you are important to us. Making a difference in the worth of the person, their families, and within their communities. UCHC-Three Points provides these services to the community; Medical Health Care, Women's Health Care starting May 16th, 2025, on every 3rd Friday of every month, Behavioral Health & Psychiatric services, we also provide Dental Care services for adults and children by calling 520-407-5617 to make an appointment. We deliver all services, with respect and professionalism for children, adolescents, adults, and elder adults. Both in clinic and telehealth services for both medical health care and behavioral health, on an as needed basis. Assisting our patients in meeting their needs through our integrated approach to medical/women's care, dental care, and mental health/psychiatric services, providing our patients their own treatment team within the clinical network of UCHC.

In conclusion, there are two important topics I would like to address, and they are:

1. Interventions for mental health crisis: You have a choice; to continue to suffer, feeling down/sad with depression or overwhelmed with anxiety toward situations in life, which are just too much to manage on your own.
2. Prevention of suicidal ideations or harm to self or others with intent and/or plan.

OR make the choice to reach out, asking for the help need.

Listed below are a few ways of receiving assistance if you are in a Mental Health Crisis.

Message From Supervisor Jennifer Allen, District 3

Dear constituents and friends,

With two months in office under my belt, I am so impressed by the complexity of the issues, concerns, and challenges facing District 3 and Pima County. With all the upheaval and uncertainty at the federal level, I hear and feel communities' anxiety, fear, and outrage. As I dig into my new role, my goal continues to be to figure out ways to protect the lands and people who call southern Arizona home and ensure that everyone is treated with dignity and has opportunities to prosper.

To get started, I've focused on building a strong foundational understanding of Pima County. I've participated in five Board of Supervisors meetings where I've been learning the ropes. With my staff, we've met with eighteen County departments to learn about their scope of work and priorities. We toured the Tres Rios Water Reclamation Center, the Pima County Adult Detention Center, and the Pima Animal Care Center where almost 500 dogs are waiting for their forever home (my family has just adopted one: Ribsy, my new best friend!).

One of my favorite parts of this role is being in District 3 communities. In the last two months, we've been in Arivaca, Ajo, Marana, Three Points, Altar Valley, Sells, Flowing Wells, and Sasabe.

In January I visited the Marana Rescue Me Shelter with other local elected officials to draw attention to the need for more pet adoptions. In February, I met with a delegation of Japanese business owners thinking of partnering with Pima County. I was honored to speak at the 70th anniversary celebration of the Southern Arizona Regional Science and Engineering Fair.

I've also been meeting with community organizations that are uniting to protect our most vulnerable residents, including immigrant families and the parents of transgender youth.

We are just getting started – so much good work ahead of us. Our calendars are packed with meetings and events across District 3 so we look forward to seeing and hearing from you in the days ahead.

Thank you,

U of A Cooperative Extension Monthly Garden Reminders for April

Pima County Monthly Garden Reminders for April

<https://extension.arizona.edu/publication/pima-county-monthly-garden-reminders-april>

Spring wildflowers abound this month in the desert and possibly in your garden as well as the days warm. Pollinators, critters and pests will all be out enjoying the bounty, making this a busy month for gardeners - so keep an eye out and take environmentally friendly action as needed to maintain your alive and active landscape. Plant your garden with the things you enjoy most; the options are endless.

Maintenance

- Remove any remaining winter damaged plant parts and compost them unless diseased. Flower stalks on fading spring bulbs are not trimmed - allow them to die back naturally but when fully spent, trim at the base.
- Thin fruit of deciduous trees such as apple, peach, plum and apricot. Pick marble-sized (or smaller) fruit off so that the fruit are spaced about 6 inches part.
- Protect young plants from wildlife. The best way to keep critters out is to use fencing 2' to 3' high. Stake the fencing to keep it standing up. Cage individual plants or entire plantings. For rabbits, use ½" poultry wire. For ground squirrels or chipmunks, use fencing with smaller openings; ¼" woven wire and cap the top as squirrels and chipmunks can climb. Leave fencing in place until plants become mature & less appealing to them.
- If your plants have yellowing or discolored leaves, contact the Master Gardener Plant Clinic for expert diagnosis and guidance on how to resolve the issue.
- Check your irrigation systems for leaks, clogged emitters and other issues. Regular maintenance includes flushing the lines on an annual basis.
- Monitor tender new growth on roses and other plants and check the undersides of leaves for aphids, thrips, and spider mites. Instead of chemical controls, use a blast of water to dislodge pests or add 1 tablespoon of liquid dish detergent to 1 gallon of water and spray the top and bottom of leaves.
- Flush accumulated salts from root zones of drip-irrigated plants in containers/raised beds by watering once 3X as long as normal.

- Plan or install active or passive Water Harvesting systems before monsoon.
- Mulch to a depth of 3-4 inches around trees and shrubs. Be sure the mulch is a few inches away from the trunk; don't make a "mulch volcano" as you can harm the plant.

Planting

- Plant warm season annuals for summer flowering-aster, coneflower, gaillardia, lisianthus, marigold, pentas, portulaca, Madagascar periwinkle, and zinnia.
- Plant perennials that provide color and attract pollinators such as chamomile, Gooding's verbena, justicia, lantana, Russian sage, and salvias.
- Plant summer bulbs such as dahlias, iris, and caladium.
- Sow seeds outdoors for cucumbers.
- Transplant seedlings of eggplant, squash, peppers, tomatoes, and thyme into the soil.
- Plant heat-loving vines such as Baja passion vine, pink trumpet vine, yellow orchid vine, and crossvine
- Plant fig trees.
- Plant citrus trees to give them time to get fully established before cold weather.
- It's the perfect time to plant heat-loving herbs such as Basil, Oregano, Rosemary, Sage, Thyme and more.
- Plant cacti and agaves as well as native and non-native desert-adapted plants to allow roots to establish before the heat begins. Consider the mature size and sun demands and any other limitations for location.

Fertilizing

- Fertilize established (not newly planted) citrus (2nd of 3 annual feedings) if you did not do so in March. For oranges, tangerines, and grapefruit, the first application was 1/3 of the total in January or February, the current 1/3 in March or April, and the last 1/3 is in May or June.
- Fertilize Bermudagrass once a month.
- Begin mild fertilizing of vegetables gardens.
- Fertilize your roses on a 3 to 4 week schedule.

Watering

- As the weather warms, increase your watering frequency but adjust if your garden receives significant rainfall.

Let's Not Allow The Internet To Kill Our Conversation Skills !

By your 3-Pts resident Anita K.,Diamond Bell.

We are very literally living in the Internet Period of History; most communication goes via internet.

Why? Well, it's easy and it's fast! So simple, who would not take the "Easy Way", if it is available,

BUT this easy way may lead to permanent damage to our communication skills.

It already seems to affect kids, teenagers, who clearly are starting to lack the skill of communication! Look at them, all you see is teenagers attentive to their cell phones.

You start or try to initiate a conversation with a teenager, and he/she goes silent. You take a train ride and sit for hours, all there is both adults and teenagers staring and communicating their cell phones. Nobody or very few talks!

In plain English, the art of personal communication is about to get lost!

Not good!

So, let's try to converse, talk, communicate without the fantastic cell phone!!

They used to teach the "Art of Speaking", at least in European high schools, but even that is gone.

Old fashioned, some say. We must be "modern" ..... do you believe that? I don't!

Maybe one has to get older, more adult to understand the power and wisdom of personal interaction through conversations! Don't know, but I do know you can't do e.g therapy via texting. I mean it does not benefit whatever you may be needing. We could predict, that say ten years from now, if this tendency of no personal conversations goes on, the therapists will be busy.

Especially young people will have so many mental and spiritual problems coming from no-live conversations, that it will not be funny.

So, let's all encourage, especially our teenagers and other family members, to "real conversations" with their friends and acquaintances. It could be called Modern Basic Psychology. And we know it works with all of us !

The BAYADA Way®

The essence of The BAYADA Way is our belief that our clients come first and that you deserve home health care delivered with compassion, excellence, and reliability.

We measure everything we do with a simple question—is this The BAYADA Way? If we can say yes, it means that:

- You and your family feel cared for and supported.
- You are receiving care that meets the highest professional, ethical and safety standards.
- You and your family can rely on us and you are able to live your life to the fullest, with a sense of well-being, dignity and trust.

Being cared for The BAYADA Way is a goal we try to achieve with every client we serve.

How The BAYADA Way began

In 2002, Mark Baiada began a companywide initiative to define and express the mission, vision, beliefs and values that have guided our work as home health care professionals.

This important project involved thousands of clients, family members and employees. Through a series of focus groups, overnight retreats, written surveys and feedback sessions, The BAYADA Way emerged.

Traveling across the country in “The BAYADA Bus” to personally deliver The BAYADA Way to each of the 128 offices at the time, Mark and The BAYADA Way team sought to listen closely and respond to the needs of our clients and professional caregivers.

If you or a loved one are in need of caregiver services and would like to experience The BAYADA Way, call the Green Valley BAYADA office at 520-648-7170.
